

TOCQUEVILLE SCHOLARS PROGRAM

The Tocqueville Scholars program is a 4-year scholars program dedicated to the ideals of Alexis de Tocqueville, with the goal to educate exceptional students in America's constitutional, economic, and political foundations. The Tocqueville Scholars program prepares students to become civic leaders in government, law, business, and public affairs through an in-depth curriculum.

Students in the program will receive an $1,250 scholarship each semester they are active in the program.

PROGRAM REQUIREMENTS

Students completing the Tocqueville Scholars Program will complete the American Civics Minor. The course outline below indicates the course schedule for the duration of the four-year program. The program is open to any academic major.

YEAR 1
Fall Semester IAC 101: Engaging Civically	Spring Semester IAC 102: Visions of America
YEAR 2
Fall Semester IAC 201: Construction and Reconstruction of the American Republic	Spring Semester IAC 202: Civil Society and the State
YEAR 3
Fall Semester IAC XXX: Democracy in America (Pending Course)	Spring Semester IAC 203: Constitutional Foundations
YEAR 4
Fall Semester IAC 412: Philosophical Origins of American Ideologies	Spring Semester IAC 495: Special Topics in American Civics

CO-CURRICULAR REQUIREMENTS

Tocqueville Scholars will be required to attend the Civic Leadership Lecture Series hosted by the IAC.

Other co-curricular activities include:

- Semesterly Reading Group
- Cohort Outings to government agencies
- Additional co-curricular programs to be determined

APPLICATION:

tiny.utk.edu/Tocqueville

Due: Friday, May 3

TOCQUEVILLE SCHOLARS PROGRAM

The Tocqueville Scholars program is a scholars program dedicated to the ideals of Alexis de Tocqueville, with the goal to educate exceptional students in America's constitutional, economic, and political foundations. The Tocqueville Scholars program prepares students to become civic leaders in government, law, business, and public affairs through an in-depth curriculum.

Students in the program will receive an $1,250 scholarship each semester they are active in the program.

PROGRAM REQUIREMENTS

Students completing the Tocqueville Scholars Program will complete the American Civics Minor. The course outline below indicates the course schedule for the duration of the scholars program. The program is open to any academic major.

REQUIRED COURSES

Based on completed courses, students should take the following courses before Program Year 2. Flexibility exists due to course offerings.

IAC 101: Engaging Civically

IAC 102: Visions of America

IAC 201: Construction and Reconstruction of the American Republic

IAC 202: Civil Society and the State

PROGRAM YEAR 2

Fall Semester

IAC XXX: Democracy in America
(Pending Course)

Spring Semester

IAC 203: Constitutional
Foundations

PROGRAM YEAR 3

Fall Semester

IAC 412: Philosophical Origins of American Ideologies

Spring Semester

IAC 495: Special Topics in American Civics

CO-CURRICULAR REQUIREMENTS

Tocqueville Scholars will be required to attend the Civic Leadership Lecture Series hosted by the IAC.

Other co-curricular activities include:

- Semesterly Reading Group
- Cohort Outings to government agencies
- Additional co-curricular programs to be determined

APPLICATION:

tiny.utk.edu/Tocqueville

Due: Friday, May 3